M.DCC.LXX.

Canons; and that there should be always present two or three Residentiaries, and if there were but one, he should receive the Profits of the rest, and be obliged to continual Residence and Attendance; that any of the Archdeacons being chosen Residentiaries, they should be allowed, out of the twenty-six Weeks, thirty Days for their Visitations; that, though the Residentiaries should overstay their twenty-six Weeks, the Overplus of that Time should not be taken into a new Year, and no Canon be reputed a Resident, unless he lived in a Prebendal House, and expended 100*l.* by the Year; that the Vicars should, in Lieu of their claiming a Right to eat at the Residentiary's Table, have an Allowance of 5*l.* per Ann. and a Stipend of 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* over and above the 40*s.* due from the several thirty-six Prebendaries.

The Number of Residentiaries is now limited to five, viz. the Dean and four others, which are all elective—except the Dean; though antiently (as above-mentioned) the Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, and Treasurer were, de Jure, Canons, and there were besides them generally three or four others chosen to that Honour: And though there were so many of them, which lessened their Income, yet they always considered the Fabrick, and constantly set apart one Dividend to it, besides the Revenues belonging to it, as they do at this Day, the Church having always a fifth or sixth Share of the Residence-Money annually divided and separated to its Use.

By a Statute lately obtained, the Dean has the Gift of, and is empowered to fill up the Vacancies that happen in the Number of Residentiaries; one only of that Number is required to reside at a Time, and the Term of Residence is contracted to three Months. The Dean resides three Months in the Year, but not in Turn with the other Residentiaries, so that during his Time there are always two in Residence.

We shall now give a short Account of the PREBENDS; with a Catalogue of the PREBENDARIES; and first

APESTHORPE, or ABSTHORPE,

SO denominated from a Parish in Nottinghamshire, where the Prebendary has the Impropriation and Advowson of the Donative, and all other Jurisdiction there. In Thoroton's Nottinghamshire this Place is called Hablithorp,
