

The line of SIR HERBERT PERROT OF WELLINGTON, Sir. Herbert Perrot was notable in Herefordshire for having founded an Almshouse at Wellington.

THE FOLLOWING PEDIGREE COURTESY OF A. SHAW WRIGHT, HONORARY COUNTY ARCHIVIST OF HEREFORD COUNTY, ENGLAND

John Perrot of Morton had children, Thomas who married Alice Wilcocks; Childred of Thomas and Alice Wilcocks Perrot were Richard who married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Bromwich, Hereford; Richard married second Alice daughter of Darnal. Robert, son of Richard and Margaret, married Fortuna, daughter of Ric. Tonkins and had son, Sir Herbert of Wellington, and other children, James, Francis and Penelope.

Other children of Richard Perrot and Margaret Bromwich were John, Francis, Richard, 'Alice Uxor Walter Gresmond.

Sir Herbert Perrot, son of Robert Perrot of Moreton and Fortuna Tonkins married first Bablow? of Pembridge and had Herbert Perrot, Concillor at-law, died at 1677, at age of 34 years.

Sir Herbert Perrot of Wellington married second, Susan daughter of Sir Francis Morris Weston of Green Oxon and had Jester fil et sole heir at 14, 1683;

James Perrot, son of Robert Perrot of Morton and Fortuna Tonkins, had Francis, Tomb at Worington? Oct. 24, 1667, age 48 servies for Republic of Venice against Turks.

Penelope, daughter of Robert Perrot of Morton and Fortuna Tonkin, married 1st Richard Street? married second Charles of Brecknock.

Other children of Thomas Perrot and Alice Wilcocks were Roger married Alice Brend of London; James married Tysdale, Anne married Henry Thorington, Alice married Alex Evans. Roger Perrot and Alice Brend had children, Simon who married a Davenport, Nathaniel, Ann Uxor Briscoe; James Perrot who married a Tyesdale had children, James who married a Wilbraham? Thomas and John.