

country once called Virginia was Virginia Dare; the first child born on York River was John West, nephew of Lord Delaware; the first male child born on the Rappahannock was Richard Parrott. The following is from the register of Christ Church, Middlesex county:

"Richard Parrott the son of M^r Richard Parrott dec^d was born the 24th of february 1650 Being the first Man child that was gott and borne in Rappahannock River of English parents."

His brother Henry was perhaps the first Virginian born sent to Gray's Inn, where his name appears in 1674.

Richard Parrott, Sr., was President of Middlesex County Court, and died November 11, 1686. His son Richard married 11th of February, 1672, Sarah, widow of William Halfhide and daughter of Major Thomas Curtis and Avarilla, his wife, and Sarah was born in Gloucester county, August 16, 1657. Their children were 1, Henry Parrott, born 25th January, 1657 [1675]; 2, Frank, born 28th August, 1677; 3, Sarah, born 21st September, 1679; 4, Richard, born 5th October, 1681; 5, Avarilla, born 3d August, 1683; 6, Robert, born 25th October, 1685; 7, Curtis, born 16th August, 1688; 8, Mary, born 19th January, 1690. The name Parrott has been always pronounced Parrott, and the arms as preserved on a seal of Richard Parrott in Middlesex represent three peers.
